LEICHHARDT.

Dear Mr. Coutts,

The time is at hand when West Sydney will be formed into a District Association, but there is not use in doing so till we have a suitable District Commissioner. Personally, and I think I am speaking for everyone else concerned, I would like to see you hold that position. You have been so long connected with that District that I doubt if anyone else understands the ins and outs as well as you do. Will you accept the office of District Commissioner for the West Sydney District. If so I will have your Warrant made out as soon as possible. I know you are busy now-a-day, but your D.S.M. can relieve you to a great extent and of course I shall be guided by your desire as to who is appointed D.S.M.

With kind regards.

Yours fraternally,

Fred Da----- P----

Dear Brother Scout:-

With this letter your Official Warrant as a District Commissioner of this Association is enclosed.

May I take the opportunity of wishing you every happiness and success in the work which you are undertaking.

Our work would not have half the fascination that it has if it all went smoothly, but remember that in spite of initial difficulties, the knowledge that you have succeeded in directing your Scouts in the right path, will eventually be to you a big reward.

Will you remember that we should teach them more by personal example than precept, how to subordinate their own individual likes to the greater aim of the whole - in a word - how to "play the game" and to play in their place, not for their own glory, but in order that their side may win.

Yours faithfully,

F. S. Davies Power
Commissioner.

OLD SCOUT REUNION

A reunion of old Scouts of the 1st Leichhardt Troop was held in their Hall on December 3rd and was a great success. About 50 of the Ancients turned up looking as young as ever, and what a time they had! All the old hikes and camps, were gone over again, old scenes revisited. Peals of hearty laughter rang out as some incident to the discomforture of some member was recalled.

Old photos produced and compared and the good old choruses resang as in days of yore, Everyone was happy and joyous Addresses were exchanged and all sorts of promises give. It was decided to form up and 'Old Scouts Club.' Appeals for help as Scouters, Instructors and Examiners, &c., should bear fruit in the near future.

6th Australian Corroboree attended by PL Fox. A Contingent of 100 Scouts were selected to attend the official opening of Parliament at Canberra, EJ Torr

A FEW FACTS ABOUT WEST SYDNEY
DISTRICT

West Sydney is the oldest established District in New South Wales, having been formed as far back as 1909. In the early years of its existence the District was known as No 6 District, and consisted of three Troops—1st Leichhardt, 1st Annandale, and to 1st Leichhardt stands the credit of forming the first Wolf Cub Pack in Australia and probably the first Troop Committee.

James X. Coutts was District Scoutmaster for a period of 12 years, and his advice and help has been the means of placing the District where it stands to-day.

The District Court of Honour has met continuously since 1910.

The West Sydney Scout, our official organ, is not the first attempt at journalism. In 1915 "The Wombat" was printed for a few months.

At present there are 36 Troops in the District, with a total membership of about 1500. This total includes about 60 Scouters. There are four recognised Troop Halls in the District, all paid for and free of debt. In addition, two Troops own valuable land, on which they intend to build at an early date.

The District Headquarters, situated in 3a Renwick Street, was the first of its kind established in the Metropolitan Area.

The Annual District Camp, held at Waterfall during 8-Hour week-end, was attended by 600 Scouts.

1st. LEICHHARDT TROOP ROVERS

The 1st Leichhardt Rover Patrol was the first of its kind formed in the West Sydney District. It was founded by A.S.M. Mackenzie after his return from the Imperial Jamboree in 1920. The Patrol then consisted of the senior members of the Troop, with Mr. Mackenzie as the Mate.

The Patrol increased in numbers as time went on, until most of the ex-members of the Scouts were rallied together with the one object of carrying on Scouting with the higher idea.

"Everything in the garden went lovely" until some of the members became tangled up with matrimonial matters and left Scouting under pressure, as their wives did not approve of them displaying their knees. Of course, this weakened the patrol considerably, and after struggling on for a few months, it found that it was impossible to carry on.

Before going into "liquidation" the patrol did some very fine work. The members helped to build the Scout Hall, and took a very active part in the workings of the Troop. They built themselves a den, and furnished it both with furniture and every item which aided indoor amusement and sport.

About two years elapsed before any of the Senior Scouts were old enough to become Rovers, and then there were very few of them to fill the patrol up with full strength. But now the Rover movement has taken a new lease of life. And it is hoped the new members will carry on the work of their predecessors and uphold the reputation earned by them from their brother Scouts.

1st. LEICHHARDT BOY SCOUTS PARENTS' AND SUPPORTERS ASSOCIATION

A very pleasant afternoon was spent on Monday, 14th February, when the ladies of the 1st Leichhardt Parents' Committee entertained Miss Charles Fairfax at the club rooms in Balmain Road, Leichhardt.

Miss Charles Fairfax was welcomed by Mr. E. A. Nichols (Chairman of the Local Association), assisted by Mrs. F. G. Maguire and Mrs. Mealy. The afternoon was spent in a very pleasant manner.

Pleasing selections on the piano were rendered by Mesdames Maguire and McClymont. Much time was spent in inspecting the building and grounds which were very interesting to the visiting lady, who expressed great interest in what she had seen.

During the afternoon refreshments which were highly appreciated, were provided by the ladies of the committee.

1st Leichhardt Troop.
Granville can play Soccer. Ask any Leichhardt Scout, for on King's Birthday we journeyed there and learnt to play Soccer, so we thought. Our Cubs played a draw; 2nd team was beaten, likewise 3rd and 1st teams. Although the first team was beaten by a big margin, it was a good game; but Granville had us "wet." The ladies of Granville gave us dinner on the grass (a kind action) which was greatly welcomed by the Scouts of both troops. At night time we journeyed back to the hall and there had tea, after which we had a little recreation which consisted of boxing, wrestling and other forms of sport. Eight o'clock arrived, which for us was time for departing, and we reluctantly left our hosts to themselves.
So far our football team has been a success, and we have hopes of holding the cup again for another season. We have just beaten Petersham, which takes us a step nearer our "goal."
The Cubs and Scouts are still having their regular parades.
