

1ST LEICHHARDT SCOUTS
145 BALMAIN ROAD
LEICHHARDT 2040
PO BOX 155
LEICHHARDT 2040

1ST LEICHHARDT SCOUT GROUP FOUNDED 1908

RECORDS OF JAMES X COUTTS, SCOUT LEADER AND DISTRICT COMMISSIONER, LEICHHARDT DISTRICT AND RECORDS OF 1ST LEICHHARDT SCOUTS,
FROM 1908 TO 1938

(Transcription of records collated by Allan Songberg, Regional Adviser, South Metropolitan Region)

PART 8

1st Leichhardt again won the boxing trophy.

Mr Jacobs as Scoutmaster and C. Richmond ASM. were appointed to run the Sea Scout section of the troop in Oct. strength was 14 boys. A cabin was constructed for them in the yard.

During the annual treasure hunt held at Sirius Cove, Scout Jack Spain of the Lion Patrol found £220 pound in gold coins.

December 30, 1939 – THE SCOUT

THE CHIEF YARNS

The Scouts who found Treasure

Before the Great War of 1914, one of the keepers at the Zoo at Taronga Park in Australia was a man of German descent.

When the Great War broke out, all Germans were kept under observation, as they are during this war, lest they should be sending military news to their fellow countrymen. So this man, fearing what he authorities might do to him, collected all his money together and buried it in the gardens. He marked the spot very carefully against his return after the war, and then he went away, it is said into the country.

When he returned, years afterward, he found that the scrub had grown, the face of the landscape had changed, and his marks had disappeared. Day after day he searched for that hidden hoard of gold, but the shores of Sirius Cove held their secret well. He never found it.

Not long ago he sailed from the country. He did not despair entirely, and, believing that the hoard would someday be discovered, he confided his secret in Mr Charles Camp, the head keeper at Taronga Park. Mr Camp searched many times for the gold, too, but although the spot had been described to him as well as could be, he, too failed to locate it.

THE DISCOVERY

Scarcely less strange than the circumstances in which the gold is claimed to have been hidden are those connected with its discovery.

One Saturday afternoon the 1st Leichhardt Troop went to Mosman to improve their Scoutcraft by means of a mock treasure hunt. The “treasure” consisted of scrapes of paper, representing sums of money, hidden in advance by the boys’ Scoutmaster. All sorts of clues, also prepared by the S.M., were given to the Scouts, who then set about the task of locating some hidden treasure.

One keen young Scout of the Troop, John of Spain, followed up these clues for some time, and presently emerged, hot and dishevelled, in the scrub above Sirius Cove. He noticed the neck of a bottle barely protruding above the level of the ground, and, thinking it might be a likely place to find a hidden “treasure,” he pulled it up.

He found, instead of scrapes of paper, a very real treasure – 215 sovereigns and 12 half-sovereigns. The coins were tarnished with age, and it was some moments before he realised the importance of his find. Then he ran back to his Scoutmaster and told him all about it.

It was decided to report the discovery to the police, so the whole party joined the next boat to Circular Quay, and, after calling at No. 4 Police Station, raced up to police headquarters. There they poured out their story and the gold before the detectives of the Criminal Investigation Branch, and then returned home immensely satisfied with their treasure hunt.

Mr. Camp, it was understood, made a claim for the gold on behalf of his friend, who was away from Australia at the time.

Baden Powell

392

December 30, 1939--THE SCOUT

THE CHIEF YARNS

The Scouts who found Treasure

BEFORE the Great War of 1914, one of the keepers in the Zoo at Taronga Park in Australia was a man of German descent. When the Great War broke out, all Germans were kept under observation, as they are during this war, lest they should be sending military news to their fellow countrymen. So this man, fearing what the authorities might do to him, collected all his money together and buried it in the gardens. He marked the spot very carefully against his return after the war, and then he went away, it is said, into the country.

When he returned, years afterwards, he found that the scrub had grown, the face of the landscape had changed, and his marks had disappeared. Day after day he searched for that hidden hoard of gold, but the shores of Sirius Cove held their secret well. He never found it.

Not long ago he sailed from the country. He did not despair entirely, and, believing that the hoard would someday be discovered, he confided his secret in Mr. Charles Camp, the head keeper at Taronga Park. Mr. Camp searched many times for the gold, too, but although the spot had been described to him as well as could be, he, too, failed to locate it.

One keen young Scout of the Troop, John Spain, followed up these clues for some time, and presently emerged, hot and dishevelled, in the scrub above Sirius Cove. He noticed the neck of a bottle barely protruding above the level of the ground, and, thinking it might be a likely place to find a hidden “treasure,” he pulled it up.

He found, instead of scrapes of paper, a very real treasure—215 sovereigns and 12 half-sovereigns. The coins were tarnished with age, and it was some moments before he realised the importance of his find. Then he ran back to his Scoutmaster and told him all about it.

It was decided to report the discovery to the police, so the whole party joined the next boat to Circular Quay, and, after calling at No. 4 Police Station, raced up to police headquarters. There they poured out their story and the gold before the detectives of the Criminal Investigation Branch, and then returned home immensely satisfied with their treasure hunt.

Mr. Camp, it was understood, made a claim for the gold on behalf of his friend, who was away from Australia at the time.

THE DISCOVERY.

SCARCELY less strange than the circumstances in which the gold is claimed to have been hidden are those connected with its discovery.

One Saturday afternoon the 1st Leichhardt Troop went to Mosman to improve their Scoutcraft by means of a mock treasure hunt. The “treasure” consisted of scrapes of paper, representing sums of money, hidden in advance by the boys’ Scoutmaster. All sorts of clues, also prepared by the S.M., were given to the Scouts, who then set about the task of locating the hidden treasure.

Baden Powell

TREASURE TROVE !

CORONER'S INQUIRY

The Sirius Bay Sovereigns

The City Coroner (Mr. May) will be called upon to discharge an unusual duty next week -to decide the ownership of about 220 sovereigns, which were found buried in a bottle in the scrub at Sirius Cove, more than a year ago.

While participating in a "treasure hunt" with other members of the Leichhardt troop of Boy Scouts, near the Zoological Gardens, John Spain, a young Scout, of Coleridge-st., Leichhardt, discovered a pickle bottle which contained about 220 sovereigns and half-sovereigns. The money was taken to the Detective Office, and efforts were made to determine the owner. The theory at first advanced was that the money had been stolen and hidden near the gardens, and that the thieves had been unable to find where they had buried the money. This idea was later discarded.

The police received numerous claims for the sovereigns. More than 20 were investigated, and the number of claimants gradually reduced to six. The Commonwealth and State Governments, a German, and the finder of the money, have each claimed part or the whole of the amount.

The case is probably the first of the kind to be heard in a coroner's court in New South Wales. Mr. May said that the practice of determining the ownership of treasure trove by coroners had been established many years ago in England, but he had no knowledge of such a case having been previously heard in this State.—S.M.H.

TREASURE TROVE!

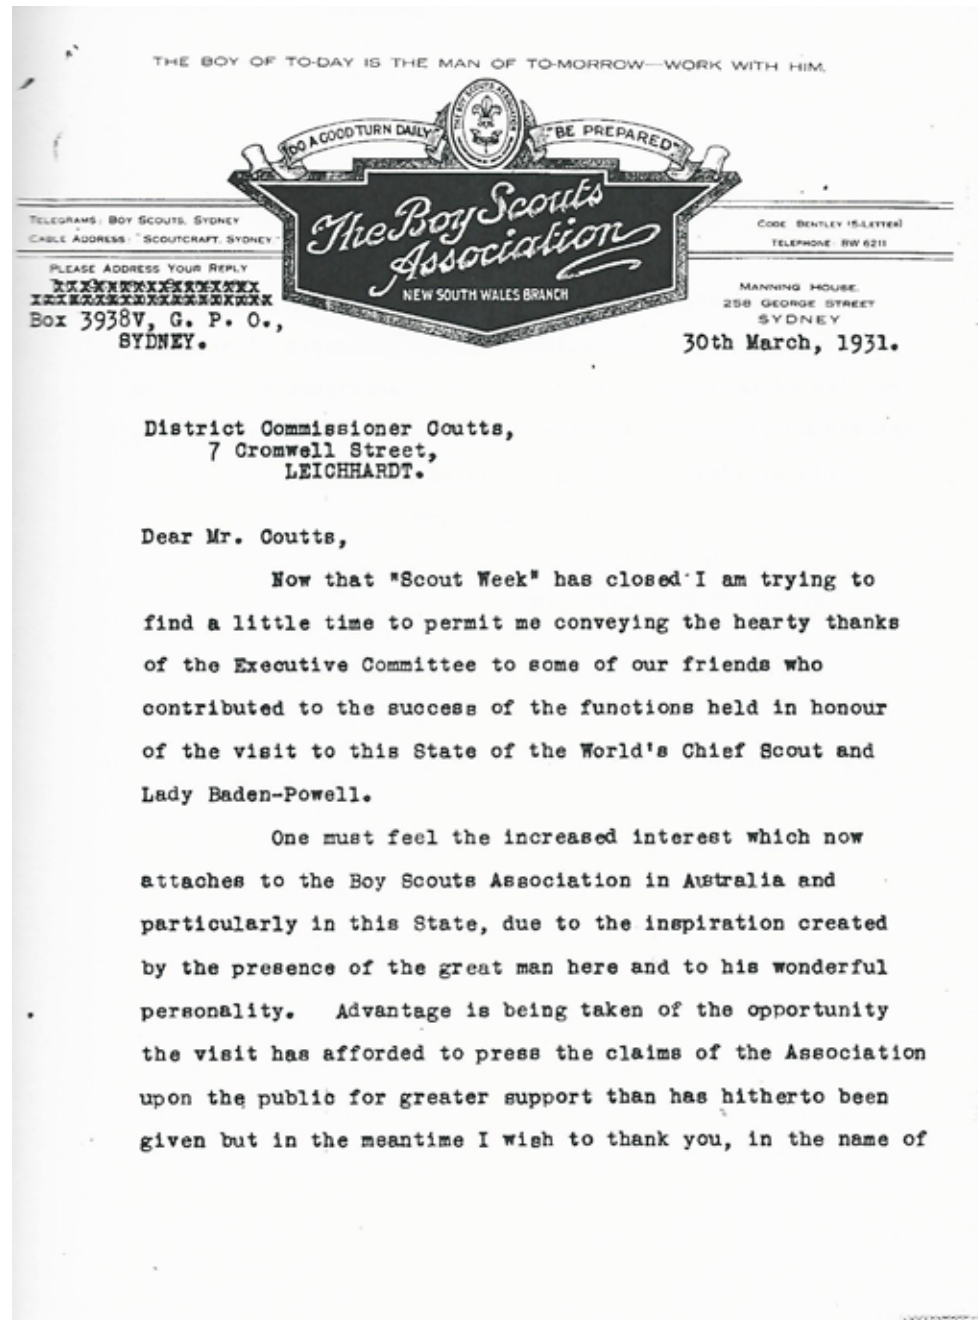

CORONER'S INQUIRY

The Sirius Bay Sovereigns

The City Coroner (Mr. May) will be called upon to discharge an unusual duty next week to decide the ownership of about 220 sovereigns, which were found buried in a bottle in the scrub at Sirius Cove, more than a year ago.

While participating in a "treasure hunt" with their members of the Leichhardt Troop of Boy Scouts, near the Zoological Gardens, John Spain, a young Scout, of Coleridge St., Leichhardt, discovered a pickle bottle which contained about 220 sovereigns and half-sovereigns. The money was taken to the Detective Office, and efforts were made to determine the owner. The theory at first advanced was that the money had been stolen and hidden near the gardens, and that the thieves had been unable to find where they had buried the money. This idea was discarded.

The police received numerous claims for the sovereigns. More than 20 were investigated, and the number of claimants gradually reduced to six. The Commonwealth and State Governments, a German, and the finder of the money, have each claimed part or the whole of the amount. The case is probably the first of the kind to be heard in a coroner's court in New South Wales. Mr. May said that the practice of determining the owner of the treasure ---- by coroners had been established many years ago in England but he had no knowledge of such a case having been previously heard in this State – S.M.H.

District Commissioner Coutts,
7 Cromwell Street,
LEICHHARDT.

Dear Mr. Coutts,

Now that "Scout Week" has closed I am trying to find a little time to permit me conveying the hearty thanks of the Executive Committee to some of our friends who contributed to the success of the functions held in honour of the visit to this State of the World's Chief Scout and Lady Baden-Powell.

One must feel the increased interest which now attaches to the Boy Scouts Association in Australia and particularly in this State, due to the inspiration created by the presence of the great man here and to his wonderful personality. Advantage is being taken of the opportunity the visit has afforded to press the claims of the Association upon the public for greater support than has hitherto been given but in the meantime I wish to thank you, in the name of

THE BOY SCOUTS ASSOCIATION

New South Wales Branch

30th March, 1931

District Commissioner Coutts,

7 Cromwell Street,

LEICHHARDT.

Dear Mr. Coutts,

Now that "Scout Week" has closed I am trying to find a little time to permit me conveying the hearty thanks of the Executive Committee to some of our friends who contributed to the success of the functions held in honour of the visit to this State of the World's Chief Scout and Lady Baden-Powell.

One must feel the increased interest which now attaches to the Boy Scouts Association in Australia and the Executive Committee, for the valued assistance you and the Rovers gave them in the duties you undertook at the Farmers & Graziers' Building and the unselfish service rendered in attending to the requirements of the boys from the country districts. We feel greatly indebted to all who so successfully carried out the work so cheerfully undertaken.

2.

I would like to add my personal thanks to all.

Yours faithfully,

CHAIRMAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

particularly in this State, due to the inspiration created by the presence of the great man here and to his wonderful personality. Advantage is being taken of the opportunity the visit has afforded to press the claims of the Association upon the public for greater support than has hitherto been given but in the meantime I wish to thank you, in the name of the Executive Committee, for the valued assistance you and the Rovers gave them in the duties you undertook at the Farmers & Graziers' Building and the unselfish service rendered in attending to the requirements of the boys from the country districts. We feel greatly indebted to all who so successfully carried out the work so cheerfully undertaken.

I would like to add my personal thanks to all.

Yours faithfully

CHAIRMAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Thanksgiving Service

of

Boy Scouts and Girl Guides

To Commemorate the Visit of the WORLD CHIEF SCOUT

Lord Baden-Powell of Gilwell

and the Chief Guide,

Lady Baden-Powell

SYDNEY CRICKET GROUND,
SUNDAY, 22nd MARCH, 1931,
3 p.m.

"May our sons be straight and strong like saplings and our daughters like cornices carved in a palace."

—(PSALM 144).

PRICE, THREEPENCE.

THE BOY SCOUTS ASSOCIATION

THANKSGIVING SERVICE

OF

BOY SCOUTS AND GIRL GUIDES

To Commemorate the Visit of the WORLD CHIEF SCOUT

LORD BADEN-POWELL of GILWELL

And the Chief Guide

LADY BADEN-POWELL

SYDNEY CRICKET GROUND

SUNDAY, 22nd MARCH, 1931

3pm

"May our sons be straight and strong like saplings and our daughters like cornices carved in a palace."

—(PSALM 144)

THE GIRL GUIDES ASSOCIATION

PRICE, THREEPENCE

"Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report . . . think of these things."

—ST. PAUL

WE SINCERELY PRAY that the Scouts and Guides United Service will be an inspiration and an uplift to all who shall have part in it.

It will be such a service as we have rarely had opportunity of participating in, and it marks an occasion to be recalled in the minds of Scouts and Guides in the years that lie ahead.

Shall we all set our minds upon it with a resolve to receive its message, and that its thoughts may be written upon our hearts?

Religion is so essential to man's make-up that none can truly live without it, and the Scout and Guide Movements could not last as they have done if it had not been that through them there runs that "Silken Thread" that binds them to the "Great Pathfinder."

We have to prove our claim to be brothers to every man, and we can only do so as we realise the Spirit of God within us.

Men who are against the things which our Movement stands for are saying, and will say, unjustifiable things concerning us and our brotherhood; but in the practice of our religion as part of our very life, it may even be that some of these will have cause to be glad for this Movement—who can tell?

So it behoves us to look to our lives to keep our hearts with all diligence—not to imagine that religion means nothing more than "going to church;" it would be a poor thing if that were all. But it is like the salt that is used in our daily food—helping to make it more palatable, and itself valuable for its purifying properties—and we know it is there and why—do we not?

Therefore, when you arrive at the service, let your thoughts go out to the meaning of it all. The place will not be just the Sydney Cricket Ground, where perhaps you have seen great players at their sport—but it will be, for the time, as much God's Holy Temple as any Cathedral could be, and your thoughts can reach out to Him there just as truly as they can in any Church. Let us try to feel Him present with us by His Spirit.

Among other things, let us endeavour to help every part of it by our careful attention, orderliness, and reverence. We are waiting upon God our Heavenly Father, so let us try to give our very best attention in our worship.

"Self reverence, self knowledge, self control, These three alone lead life to sovereign power."

—TENNYSON.

"Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report ... think of these things."

-St. PAUL

We sincerely pray that the Scouts and Guides United Service will be an inspiration and an uplift to all who shall have part in it.

It will be such a service as we have rarely had opportunity of participating in, and it marks an occasion to be recalled in the minds of Scouts and Guides in the years that lie ahead.

Shall we all set our minds upon it with a resolve to receive its message, and that its thoughts may be written upon our hearts?

Religion is so essential to man's make-up that none can truly live without it, and the Scout and Guide Movements could not last as they have done if it had not been that through them there runs that "Silken Thread" that binds them to the "Great Pathfinder."

We have to prove our claim to be brothers to every man, and we can only do so as we realise the Spirit of God within us.

Men who are against the things which our Movement stands for are saying, and will say, unjustifiable things concerning us and our brotherhood; but in the practice of our religion as part of our very life, it may even be that some of these will have cause to be glad for this Movement—who can tell?

So it behoves us to look to our lives to keep our hearts with all diligence – not to imagine that religion means nothing more than "going to church;" it would be a poor thing if that were all. But it is like the salt that is used in our daily food – helping to make it more palatable, and itself valuable for its purifying properties – and we know it is there and why – do we not?

Therefore, when you arrive at the service, let your thoughts go out to the meaning of it all. The place will not be just the Sydney Cricket Ground, where perhaps you have seen great players at their sport – but it will be, for the time, as much God's Holy Temple as any Cathedral could be, and your thoughts can reach out to Him there just as truly as they can in any Church. Let us try to feel Him present with us by His Spirit.

Among other things, let us endeavour to help every part of it by our careful attention, orderliness, and reverence. We are waiting upon God our Heavenly Father, so let us try to give our very best attention in our worship.

"Self reverence, self knowledge, self control. These three alone lead life to sovereign power."

-TENNYSON

"Teach your sons that their bravery is but a fool's boast, and their deeds but a firebrand's tossing, unless they are indeed just men and perfect in the fear of God; and soon you will have no more war."

—JOHN RUSKIN.

The Procession will assemble outside the arena, and will be composed as follows:

Troop Flags, Standards, and Company Colours.

1. Headquarters Colours (Scouts and Guides).
2. Headquarters Commissioners.
3. State Chief Commissioners.
4. Chief Scout of all the World, Lord Baden-Powell of Gilwell.
5. Chief Guide, Lady Baden-Powell.
6. Chief Scout of New South Wales, Air Vice-Marshal Sir Philip Game.
7. State President Girl Guides' Association, Lady Game.
8. President and Vice-Presidents of the Associations.
9. Chairman of the New South Wales Executive Committee.
10. Consuls of Foreign Countries.
11. The Archbishop of Sydney, preceded by his Chaplain.

The Scouts and Guides will stand as the Procession enters the arena and will remain so until the conclusion of the Prayers.

National Anthem

A Blast of the Kudu will mark the commencement of the Service.

The sounding of the Kudu Horn in 1908 brought into being the Boy Scout Movement. In 1929, at Arrowe Park, the same horn, blown by the Chief Scout of all the World, announced the commencement of the greatest assembly of youth the world has ever seen—gathered from every part of the globe, to answer the summons of the Chief to the great coming-of-age Jamboree. And to-day our revered Chief himself, here in the midst of those who are following out his inspired plan of life in this far corner of the Empire, calls us by a blast on the Kudu to join with grateful hearts in a Thanksgiving Service to the Father of all Scouts and Guides.

ENTRY OF ROVER SCOUTS CARRYING NATIONAL FLAGS OF COUNTRIES AFFILIATED WITH THE INTERNATIONAL BUREAU.

"Standing as I do, in the view of God and Eternity, I realise that Patriotism is not enough. I must have no hatred or bitterness towards anyone."

—EDITH CAVELL—just prior to her death.

"Teach your sons that their bravery is but a fool's boast, and their deeds but a firebrand's tossing, unless they are indeed just men and perfect in the fear of God; and soon you will have no more war."

—JOHN RUSKIN

The Procession will assemble outside the arena, and will be composed as follows:

Troop Flags, Standards, and Company Colours

1. Headquarters Colours (Scouts and Guides).
2. Headquarters Commissioners.
3. State Chief Commissioners.
4. Chief Scout of all the World, Lord Baden-Powell of Gilwell.
5. Chief Guide, Lady Baden-Powell.
6. Chief Scout of New South Wales, Air Vice-Marshal Sir Philip Game.
7. State President Girl Guides Association, Lady Game.
8. President and Vice-Presidents of the Association.
9. Chairman of the New South Wales Executive Committee.
10. Consuls of Foreign Countries.
11. The Archbishop of Sydney, preceded by his Chaplain.

The Scouts and Guides will stand as the Procession enters the arena and will remain so until the conclusion of the Prayers.

NATIONAL ANTHEM

A Blast of the Kudu will mark the commencement of the Service.

The sounding of the Kudu Horn in 1908 brought into being the Boy Scout Movement. In 1929, at Arrowe Park, the same horn, blown by the Chief Scout of all the World, announced the commencement of the greatest assembly of youth the world has ever seen – gathered from every part of the globe, to answer the summons of the Chief to the great coming-of-age Jamboree. And today our revered Chief himself, here in the midst of those who are following out his inspired plan of life in this far corner of the Empire, calls us by a blast on the Kudu to join with grateful hearts in a Thanksgiving Service to the Father of all Scouts and Guides.

ENTRY OF ROVER SCOUTS CARRYING NATIONAL FLAGS OF COUNTRIES AFFILIATED WITH THE INTERNATIONAL BUREAU.

"Standing as I do, in the view of God and Eternity, I realise that Patriotism is not enough. I must have no hatred or bitterness towards anyone."

—EDITH CAVELL – just prior to her death.

"I expect to pass through this world once. Any good things, therefore, that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."

—AUTHOR UNKNOWN.

Hymn

Land of our birth, we pledge to thee
Our love and toil in the years to be;
When we are grown and take our place,
With men and women of our race.

Teach us the strength that cannot seek,
By deed or thought to hurt the weak;
That under Thee we may possess
Man's strength to comfort man's distress.

[Stand]

Teach us delight in simple things,
In mirth that has no bitter stings;
Forgiveness free of evil done,
And love to all men 'neath the sun.

Land of our birth, our faith, and pride,
For whose dear sake our fathers died;
O, Motherland, we pledge to thee,
Head, heart and hand, through the years to be.

(Kipling)

Prayer of Thanksgiving

ALMIGHTY and Everlasting God our Heavenly Father, we beseech Thee to hear and accept our offering of thanksgiving for that Thou hast safely brought to our midst our beloved Leader, Thy Servant, Robert Baden-Powell and his helper the Chief Guide, who by Thy grace have been enabled to bring into being the Scout and Guide Movement which now extends to all lands. We pray Thee to bless them while they remain with us, further them in all their good work, prosper them in health, and when they move away from us go with them in their journeyings throughout this Commonwealth and to their home. Maintain them by the power of Thy Grace until their work shall be complete. This we ask for the sake of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Almighty Father we pray for Thy blessing on all those whom Thou hast joined together in the fellowship of Scouting and Guiding. Grant that we may all so work and play and think and pray together that we may more perfectly be fitted to serve Thee in the daily calls of duty. Help us to look wide, fill us with high ideals, inspire us with love and good will to all mankind, that we may follow in the steps of Him who died in the service of men, Thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Grant us, O Lord, the royalty of inward happiness and the serenity that comes of living close to Thee. Day by day renew in us the sense of joy and let Thy Eternal Spirit dwell in our souls and bodies and make us to be worthy followers wherever Thou shalt lead us, to the glory of Thy Wonderful Name. Amen.

Lord, we thank Thee for the life of Thy servant George, our King. Grant that his years may be rich with Thy blessing. Furnish him with wise and safe counsels, and give him a heart of courage and constancy to pursue them to the advancement of Thy Kingdom, and the upholding of peace and good will among the Nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

"Heaviness may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning; this is a law that God hath laid upon nature."

—THE TALMUD.

"I expect to pass through this world once. Any good things, therefore, that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."

- AUTHOR UNKNOWN

HYMN

Land of our birth, we pledge to thee Our love and toil in the years to be; When we are grown and take our place, With men and women of our race.	Teach us delight in simple things, In mirth that has no bitter stings; Forgiveness free of evil done, And love to all men neath the sun.
Teach us the strength that cannot seek, By deed or thought to hurt the week; That under the Thee we may possess Man's strength to comfort man's distress. [Stand]	Land of our birth, our faith, and pride, For whose dear sake our fathers died; O, Motherland, we pledge to thee, Head, heart and hand, through the years to be. (Kipling)

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Almighty and everlasting God our Heavenly Father, we beseech Thee to hear and accept our offering of thanksgiving for that Thou hast safely brought to our midst our beloved Leader, Thy Servant, Robert Baden-Powell and his helper the Chief Guide, who by Thy grace have been enabled to bring into being the Scout and Guide Movement which now extends to all lands. We pray Thee to bless them while they remain with us, further them in all their good work, prosper them in health, and when they move away from us go with them in their Journeyings throughout this Commonwealth and to their home. Maintain them by the power of Thy Grace until their work shall be complete. This we ask for the sake of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Almighty Father we pray for Thy blessing on all those who Thou hast joined together in the fellowship of Scouting and Guiding. Grant that we may all so work and play and think and pray together that we may more perfectly be fitted to serve Thee in the daily calls of duty. Help us to look wide, fill us with high ideals, inspire us with love and good will to all mankind, that we may follow in the steps of Him who died in the service of men, Thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Grant us, O Lord, the royalty of inward happiness and the serenity that comes of living close to Thee. Day by day renew in us the sense of joy and let Thy Eternal Spirit dwell in our souls and bodies and make us to be worthy followers wherever Thou shalt lead us, to the glory of Thy Wonderful Name, Amen.

Lord, we than Thee for the Life of Thy servant George, our King. Grant that his years may be rich with Thy blessing, Furnish him with wise and safe counsels, and give him a heart of courage and constancy to pursue them to the advancement of Thy Kingdom, and the upholding of peace and good will among the Nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

"Heaviness may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning; this is a law that God hath laid upon nature."

- THE TALMUD

"As the barren tree in winter is without leaf or flower to give scent to the morning air, so is a man without love."

[Stand]

Hymn

Praise my soul, thē King of Heaven,
To His feet thy tribute bring.
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven;
Even more His praises sing.
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Praise the Everlasting King.

Praise Him for His grace and favour,
To our Fathers in distress;
Praise Him still the same forever,
Slow to chide and swift to bless.
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Glorious in His faithfulness.

Fatherlike He tends and spares us,
Well our feeble frame He knows.
In His hands he gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes.
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Widely as His mercy flows.

Angels in the height adore Him,
Ye behold Him face to face;
Sun and moon bow down before Him,
Dwellers all in Time and Space.
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Praise with us the God of Grace.
(H. F. Lyte)

[Stand]

THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER for New South Wales will then read the Scout and Guide Law.

1. A Scout's honour is to be trusted.
2. A Scout is loyal.
3. A Scout's duty is to be useful and to help others.
4. A Scout is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout, no matter to what social class the other belongs.
5. A Scout is courteous.
6. A Scout is a friend to animals.
7. A Scout obeys orders.
8. A Scout smiles and whistles under all difficulties.
9. A Scout is thrifty.
10. A Scout is clean in thought, word, and deed.

At the conclusion, all Scouts and Guides shall say:
"Lord, incline our heart to keep these laws."

Address

THE CHIEF GUIDE, LADY BADEN-POWELL.

"To worship rightly is to love each other.
Each smile a hymn, each kindly deed a prayer."
—J. G. WHITTIER.

"As the barren tree in winter is without leaf or flower to give scent to the morning air, so is a man without love."

[Stand]

HYMN

Praise my soul, the King of Heaven, To His feet thy tribute bring. Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven; Even more His praises sing. Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise the Everlasting King.	Fatherlike He tends and spares us, Well our feeble frame He knows. In His hands he gently bears us, Rescues us from all our foes. Praise Him! Praise Him! Widely as His mercy flows.
Praise Him for His grace and favour, To our Fathers in distress; Praise Him still the same forever, Slow to chide and swift to bless. Praise Him! Praise Him! Glorious in His faithfulness.	Angels in the heights adore Him, Ye behold Him face to face; Sun and moon bow down before Him, Dwellers all in Time and Space. Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise with us the God of Grace. (H.F. Lyte)

[Stand]

THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER for New South Wales will then read the Scout and Guide Law.

1. A Scout's honour is to be trusted.
2. A Scout is loyal.
3. A Scout's duty is to be useful and to help others.
4. A Scout is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout, no matter what social class the other belongs.
5. A Scout is courteous.
6. A Scout is a friend to animals.
7. A Scout obeys orders.
8. A Scout is thrify.
9. A Scout is clean in thought, word, and deed.

At the conclusion, all Scouts and Guides shall say;
"Lord, incline our heart and keep these laws."

ADDRESS

THE CHIEF GUIDE, LADY BADEN-POWELL

"To worship rightly is to love each other.
Each smile a hymn, each kindly deed a prayer."

- J.G. WHITTIER

"God will not seek thy race,
Nor will He ask thy birth;
Alone He will demand of thee,
'What hast thou done on earth?'"
—A PERSIAN SAYING.

[Stand]

Hymn

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with fear, His praise forthtell;
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

The Lord ye know is God indeed,
Without our aid He did us make;
We are His flock, He doth us lead,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

For why? The Lord our God is good,
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

[Sit]

Lesson

From St. Paul's Letter to the Ephesians (Chapter 6, verses 1-17).

The whole Assembly, led by a Rover Scout, will then recite the 23rd Psalm.

[Stand]

THE LORD is my Shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul, He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me, Thy Rod and Thy Staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Lord's Prayer

OUR FATHER, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name, Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive them that trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the Glory. For ever and ever, Amen.

"Life every man holds dear; but the brave man Holds honour far more precious dear than life."
—SHAKESPEARE.

"God will not seek thy race.
Nor will He ask thy birth;
Alone He will demand of thee,
'What hast thou done on earth?'"

- A PERSIAN SAYING

[Stand]

HYMN

All people that on earth do dwell, Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; Him serve with fear, His praise forthtell; Come ye before Him and rejoice.	The Lord ye know is God indeed, Without our aid He did us make; We are His flock, He doth us lead, And for His sheep He doth us take.
--	--

For why? The Lord our God is good,
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

[Sit]

LESSON

From St. Paul's Letter to the Ephesians (Chapter 6, Versus 1-17).

The Whole Assembly, led by a Rover Scout, with then recite the 23rd Psalm.

[Stand]

The LORD is my Shepard, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul, He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me, Thy Rod and Thy Staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enimies. Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

THE LORDS PRAYER

OUR FATHER, which art in Heaven, Hallowed by Thy Name, Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive then that trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, by deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the Glory. For ever and ever, Amen.

"Life every man holds dear; but the brave man
Holds honour far more precious dear than life."

- SHAKESPEARE

"As the potter moulds the clay to the delight of his imagination, so can man mould his life through the desire of his heart. As the earthen vessels are fashioned into beautiful or ugly forms, so life can be made beautiful or ugly according to the purpose which you have established for yourself."

[Stand]

Hymn

Stand up! Stand up for Jesus, ye soldiers of the Cross,
Lift high His royal Banner, it must not suffer loss.
From Victory unto Victory, His army doth He lead,
Till every foe is vanquished, and Christ is Lord indeed.

Stand up! Stand up for Jesus, the trumpet call obey,
Forth to the mighty conflict, in this, His glorious day.
Ye that are men, now serve Him, against unnumbered foes,
Let courage rise with danger, and strength to strength oppose.

Stand up! Stand up for Jesus, stand in His strength alone,
The arm of flesh will fail you, ye dare not trust your own.
Put on the gospel armour, and watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls or danger, be never wanting there.

[Sit]

Address

THE CHIEF SCOUT, LORD BADEN-POWELL
will then address the Assembly, and at the conclusion will call upon ALL to STAND, and the Flag Bearers to lower their Flags. He will appeal to those present to think over their promise while he repeats it to them.

[Stand]

The Scout and Guide Promise

On my honour I promise that I will do my best—
To do my duty to God and the King;
To help other people at all times;
To obey the Scout/Guide Law.

He will then call upon those willing to render service to their fellow-men to hold up their hands, raise their Flags, and answer—

"I WILL."

[Stand]

Prayer

His Grace the ARCHBISHOP OF SYDNEY.

ALMIGHTY GOD, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed, kindle, we pray Thee, in the hearts of all men in all Nations the true love of peace, and guide with Thy pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the Nations of the earth; that in tranquillity Thy kingdom may go forward till the earth is filled with the knowledge of Thy love and the glory of God as the Waters cover the Sea.
Amen.

"To travel hopefully is a better thing than to arrive, and the true success is to labour."

—R. L. STEVENSON.

"As the potter moulds the clay to the delight of his imagination, so can man mould his life through the desire of his heart. As the earthen vessels are fashioned into beautiful or ugly forms, so life can be made beautiful or ugly according to the purpose which you have established for yourself."

[Stand]

HYMN

Stand up! Stand up for Jesus, ye soldiers of the Cross,
Lift high His royal Banner, it must not suffer loss.
From Victory unto Victory, His army doth He lead,
Till every foe is vanquished, and Christ is Lord indeed.

Stand up! Stand up for Jesus, the trumpet call obey,
Forth to the mighty conflict, in this, His glorious day.
Ye that are men, now serve Him, against unnumbered foes,
Let courage rise with danger, and strength to strength oppose.

Stand up! Stand up for Jesus, stand in His strength alone,
The arm of flesh will fail you, ye dare not trust your own.
Put on the gospel armour, and watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls or danger, be never wanting there.

[Sit]

ADDRESS

THE CHIEF SCOUT, LORD BADEN-POWELL

will then address the Assembly, and at the conclusion will call upon ALL to STAND, and the Flag Bearers to lower their Flags. He will appeal to those present to think over their promise while he repeat it to them.

[Stand]

THE SCOUT AND GUIDE PROMISE

On my honour I promise that I will do my best –
To do my duty to God and the King;
To help other people at all times;
To obey the Scout/Guide Law.

He will then call upon those willing to render service to their fellow-men to hold up their hands, raise their Flags, and answer –

"I WILL."

[Stand]

PRAYER

His Grace the ARCHBISHOP OF SYDNEY

ALMIGHTY GOD, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed, kindle, we pray Thee, in the hearts of all men in all Nations the true love of peace, and guide with Thy pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the Nations of the earth; that in tranquillity Thy kingdom may go forward till the earth is filled with the knowledge of Thy love and the glory of God as the Waters cover the Sea. Amen.

"To travel hopefully is a better thing than to arrive, and the true success is to labour."

- R.L. STEVENSON.

"As there is sap in the tree which brings forth foliage for the glory of its being, so in each man there is the spark of divinity which through sorrow, through ecstasy, through struggle, through all the process of life, grows to perfection and the state of eternal happiness."

Then the Chief Scout, addressing the Archbishop, repeats the ancient request:
"Sire, Bid a Blessing upon us."

Supplication

ARCHBISHOP: God save the King and all Rulers of all people.
God Bless all the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides of all the World.
God give us thankful hearts.

The Blessing

will then be pronounced by His Grace the Archbishop of Sydney.
Procession will re-form and leave the arena by same order as on entry.
The Whole Parade will then march past the Chief Scout and Chief Guide.

The Snelling Printing Works,
Bay St, Sydney.

"As there is sap in the tree which brings forth foliage for the glory of its being, so in each man there is the spark of divinity which through sorrow, through ecstasy, through struggle, through all the process of life, grows to perfection and the state of eternal happiness."

Then the Chief Scout, addressing the Archbishop, repeats the ancient request:

"Sire, Bid a Blessing upon us."

SUPPLICATION

ARCHBISHOP: God save the King and all Rulers of all people.
God Bless all the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides of the World.
God give us thankful hearts.

THE BLESSING

will then be pronounced by His Grace the Archbishop of Sydney.

Procession will re-form and leave the arena by same order as on entry.
The Whole Parade will then march past the Chief Scout and Chief Guide.

The Snelling Printing Works,
Bay St, Sydney